

SUMMARY

Experienced professional with a diverse background spanning business development, higher education, and student placement. Initiated my career as a Business Development Officer with a strong focus on client acquisition and relationship management before transitioning into academia. As an Assistant Professor and Placement Officer in the Management Department of ITM MBA, I successfully facilitated internships and career opportunities for students. Currently serving as a Guest Lecturer at Sunrise College of Advanced Studies and pursuing a Ph.D. in Marketing as a research scholar. Additionally, I hold a certification in Third-Party Logistics Management, bringing both academic depth and industry insight to my professional roles.
